The Clarkson Rumors.

The reports of Mr. Clarkson's resignation as Assistant Postmaster General have been renewed, and in some quarters it is asserted positively that the document has been written and handed to the Postmaster General, to take effect June 1st. This is readily believed because Mr. Clarkson's desire to leave his office is well understood, but it is not true. He has not written his resignation, and will not hand it in for some time. His situation and sentiments are well understood both by the President and Postmaster General Wainwright. Mr. Clarkson does not like the office he holds. He feels that the honors he is enjoying do not compensate him for the wear and tear of mind and body. He would like to leave the department by June 1st, but it is hardly probable that he will do so, because the President is not now prepared to select his successor and there is certain work to be done that he desires to complete; in other words, he is ambitious to fill the fourth class office of the country with Republicans, so far as possible, in order to strengthen the organization of that party before he turns over his portfolio to someone else.

Lord of the Legislators.

The farmers have the call in this Congress. In the last House of Representatives it was the Knights of Labor and it was expected that the Grand Army of the Republic would control legislation in this, but the horny handed agriculturists appear to be the men whose vote is sought with the greatest energy, and as Senator Vance, of North Carolina, said in a speech the other day, every member of the Senate appeared to be trying to mount the highest pedestal and stand as the farmers' friend. The Farmers' Alliance appears to be as formidable in the Southern States as in the West, and the Southern Senators and members appear to have forgotten all about the poor moonshiner of the mountains for whose benefit in the last Congress they were trying to secure a removal of the tax on fruit brandies, whisky in small stills for local consumption and a repeal of the internal revenue regulations, but the farmer is having his own way.

Representatives Will Get Their Pay.

A decision was announced by the Court of Claims Monday morning in the claim of Representative Crain against the United States for salary as a member of Congress for the month of November, 1889, which he failed to receive, owing to the defalcation of Cashier Sillcutt last Fall. The Court sustained the petition and awarded judgment in the sum of $306. Acting on this decision the House of Representatives will probably make an appropriation sufficient to cover the total amount of defalcation, at least $70,000, in order to save useless expense in the institution of other suits for the same end. Judge Davis read the decision, which was a masterly review of the law and the custom in the premises, occupying fully three-quarters of an hour in the delivery. The seats in the court room were all taken, Representatives Payson and Payson being present to hear the judgment.

It is reported that the Republican members of the House Committee on Coinage will not act on the United silver bill as reported. While the bill was agreed to by the majority it was understood that all the members should be left free to do as they see fit in the House. The bill is not what the silver men desired, but it is hoped even now that the bill will be greatly improved. It is hoped to get in a provision in the House that could not be secured in the committee.

A report comes from San Diego that Chinese are transferred from China steamers at San Francisco, taken to Lower California and landed at Escondido, whence they can easily reach the border; and for $20 to $25 a head they are safely crossed by white men who are engaged in the business.

The last rail of the Butte, Mont., and Gallatin branch of the Northern Pacific railroad was laid last Saturday. This road brings Butte two miles nearer than Helena to St. Paul, and makes the rich Jefferson and Gallatin valleys commercially tributary to Omaha.

Three white men are said to be making big money by running Chinamen across the border at Tia Juana. Chinamen are also profiting by selling certificates to their countrymen. The Enumeration bill may help to break up this practice.

Immigration from the United States to Canada will reach flood tide during the next two days. The glory of the Dominion as an asylum of rogues will disappear after the 4th of April, when the new treaty goes into effect.

It is learned that most of the money taken by the Maryland defaulting State Treasurer, Archer, went for campaign purposes and to back political friends.

It is reported that Joe Goodman will have charge of the editorial department of the Enterprise in the coming campaign.

Chauncey B. Sabin, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Texas, died Sunday.

The Treasury officials estimate the debt reduction for March at about $12,000,000.

A Nineteen-Year-Old Lover Kills His Girl and Then Shoots Himself.

Women at the Polls.

Special to the Journal.
TOKIO, Kan., April 1.—Elections were had in Kansas to-day in 60 cities for councilmen and members of school boards. In nearly all purely local issues prevailed. The chief interest was the exercise of suffrage by the women at Manhattan. The prospects are that the women's ticket is elected over the others. The women had control of the machinery at Leavenworth. The Democrats ran a straight male ticket and it was elected with the exception of one councilman. All the women were defeated at Emporia. The women were worked up to the highest pitch of political excitement over the candidacy of Mrs. Jackson for re-election. At Topeka about 750 women registered, but little over half of them voted.

House Proceedings.

Special to the Journal.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Army appropriation bill, which passed without division, appropriated $4,521,678. The National Zoological Park bill, providing for a park in the District of Columbia, passed. The Naval appropriation bill was reported and placed on the calendar. A resolution was adopted that the Idaho admission bill be made the special order for to-morrow and Thursday. The previous question was ordered for 3 o'clock Thursday. The death of Representative Wilber was then announced and the House adjourned.

The Louisville Reaction.

Special to the Journal.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 1.—The sun has been shining brightly and to-day the rains dried rapidly and the work of repairing the damage by the tornado has gone forward energetically. Clearing the streets of the wreckage was begun to-day, and temporary mechanism was constructed by which it is hoped the water reservoir will be supplied thus ending the water famine. Out of eighty houses destroyed in Jeffersonville the owners of four-fifths of them were poor people, and help is needed.

Still at Work.

Special to the Journal.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The Freight Committee of the Transcontinental Association had a long session at the Palace Hotel but nothing but routine business was transacted, and from the present outlook the session will continue a week longer. The number of applications from merchants for reductions in freight rates were discussed, but no definite action was taken regarding them.

A Fatal Fall.

Special to the Journal.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—John Hall, aged about 20 years, was killed by a fall this afternoon at the Union Iron Works. While preparing for some hoisting he lost his balance and fell to the ground a distance of 60 feet. When picked up Hall was still alive, but unconscious, and died in an hour. Outwardly he bore no sign of the frightful fall.

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Farmers' Review to-morrow will say: "Outside of Kansas the reports received relative to the condition of winter wheat are very discouraging, particularly in Illinois and Indiana. The general averages from reports received are summarized: Illinois, 76 per cent; Indiana, 88; Missouri, 86; Kentucky, 87; Kansas, 82; Wisconsin, 72; Michigan, 67."

ARMY CHANGES.

General Miles May Be Transferred to New York.

A Washington special says: It has been practically decided to transfer General Howard from the Department of the Atlantic to the Division of the Missouri at Chicago, to succeed General Crook, and if Miles is promoted to be Major General, as will probably be the case, he will be transferred from San Francisco to New York. The new Brigadier General will succeed Miles in command of the Division of the Pacific. The President has not yet determined upon the appointment, but the prevailing opinion among officers around the War Department is that General S. Stanley is the coming man, and that either Wesley Merritt or B. H. Grierson will be sent to the Department of Texas to succeed Stanley.

Subject to Duty.

Special to the Journal.
WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Collector of Customs at Fort Benton, Montana, informed the Treasury Department that large numbers of cattle strayed into the district from British America about three years ago and have remained ever since. He asks whether they are liable to duty. Assistant Secretary Tichenor replied that while the increase in the number of said animals, which may have naturally occurred since the arrival of the herd in the United States are not liable to duty, being of domestic production. The animals which strayed across the border are properly subject to duty.

Rash Act of a Jealous Young Lover.

Special to the Journal.
DARTON, Wash., April 1.—Yesterday afternoon Henry Sanders, 19 years of age, shot and instantly killed Della Eddington, aged 17, and committed suicide by shooting himself in the forehead. The cause of the deed was jealousy. He had threatened to kill her if she refused his attentions, and meeting her returning from school fired the fatal shot. The bodies were discovered by Mrs. Eddington, who heard the firing and went to investigate. The murdered girl was a general favorite, and her parents are highly respected.

A Democratic Victory.

Special to the Journal.
MILWAUKEE, April 1.—The indications to-night are that George W. Peck, the Democratic editor of Peck's Sun, has been elected over Mayor Brown, renominated by the Republicans.

PETER AND JOHN.

Will They Ever Meet in the Prize Ring.

The sporting editor of the New York Sun says, in speaking of the fight between Jackson and Sullivan: "I have just received a letter from London which says: 'The sporting men here think a great deal of Jackson's athletic prowess and are nearly all prepared to back him heavily against Sullivan in case the fight comes off.' This shows that Sullivan's failure to defeat Mitchell has lessened him greatly in English estimation. In Australia Jackson has naturally many partisans. But as Sullivan has never been there and as the colony naturally takes its opinion from the mother country, he cannot have many friends there who will bet heavily on him. Australian money, therefore, will be sent to San Francisco for investment."

"In this country nine out of ten sporting men are of the opinion that Jackson is no match for Sullivan, and fully 75 per cent. of them will back their opinion with money. This being the fact, I feel sure that if Peter and John come together under the auspices of the California Athletic Club the betting on the result will be four times as great as was ever known on a similar event. English and Australian money will be there in fabulous amounts, and American money will be there to cover it. I would not be surprised if $1,000,000 changed hands through this fight. The victor can well afford to retire from the ring, for his reward will be the greatest ever gladiator earned."

WHITE RETIRES.

He is Out of the California Governorship Fight.

The San Francisco Post says: Stephen M. White, of Los Angeles, has retired from the contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

This announcement will prove a genuine surprise to the masses of the Democratic party, who, for some time, had come to regard Mr. White as one of the strongest men whose name had been advanced for the place.

Mr. White's ambition, however, is to a higher place. He aspires to occupy the seat in the United States Senate now held by Senator Stanford, whose term expires in 1891. All of Mr. White's energies heretofore will be concentrated on an effort to secure this place. It is said on the highest Democratic authority that he has been promised the heartiest support of the San Francisco party leader, and that he himself is positive of his ability to swing the country votes. This is a combination which Mr. White thinks will be hard to beat, and his prospects in his own party are said to be the brightest of all.

All this, though, depends on the choice of a Democratic Legislature, to elect which the party has determined to make a special effort. Mr. White's withdrawal leaves the field open to Mayor Pond, John Boggs and W. D. English, each of whom has launched his boom with considerable ceremony.

The Farmer and the Tariff.

Selling his products at low free trade rates and buying many things at the artificial prices demanded by trusts sheltered behind a war tariff, the farmer is profoundly discontented, and Democratic demagogues have seized eagerly on the supposed opportunity to embitter him against even the principles of protection. If the tariff is to stand as at present the discontent will grow stronger and make itself felt with a force which will shatter rather than reform the protective system. —Chicago Tribune.

The War on the Trusts.

The Republicans intend to attack the trusts in two places, at the Custom House and in the courts. They will reduce duties on articles which directly contribute toward strengthening the trusts, and will frame, as they are trying to do in the Sherman bill, laws which will deal with them as agencies to prevent competition and as conspiracies against the public welfare. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

To fight the lottery renewal an Anti-Lottery League has been organized in New Orleans, composed of a number of business men and politicians. This organization will make a vigorous fight against the proposed extension of the charter of the Louisiana Lottery Company. The Anti-Lottery League has issued a circular in which it calls attention to the effort of the lottery to secure a renewal of its charter, says the passage of a constitutional amendment to that effect would imperil the Democratic party in the State, and would involve virtually a submission of the question to the decision of the colored vote, and that it behooves all good citizens who desire the abolition of this great gambling institution and the removal of its corrupting influence from politics to give a helping hand in the contest. In conclusion it urges organization in every parish in the State, and calls upon the leading spirits in each locality to join.

The narrow escape of the steamship City of Paris from foundering while on her last trip to Queenstown is likely to disabuse people's minds of the notion that compartment ships cannot be sunk by any ordinary accident. From all accounts it would appear that the steamer's escape was an extremely narrow one, notwithstanding the firm belief of the builders that she was absolutely unsinkable.

The House Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures has agreed to offer a resolution for the consideration of the Windom Silver bill on the 15th of April.

WHAT ON AITH
Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat little good. For an hour, after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." Senator Foley and wife returned from Eureka yesterday morning.

New gas mains are to be put down the entire length of Second street.

The Palace dry goods store is receiving an immense shipment of new spring stock.

Real estate transactions are becoming lively. Reno property is always a good investment.

Supt. Frank Jaynes, of the Western Union, was a passenger for the Comstock yesterday morning.

Walter J. Tonkin, of Eureka, came in yesterday on his way to Gold Hill to attend the funeral of his brother.

Miss Pearl Cotes, who recently arrived from Chicago, has taken a position in the Reno Western Union telegraph office.

Curtis commenced work yesterday on the new $5,000 house for "Scotty" Cone, of Virginia City, on his corner of Second and Washington streets, Towning's addition.

The pupils of the Reno High School will give a literary entertainment and dance in Armory Hall, on the evening of April 11th, to raise funds to help pay for the piano now being used in the school.

Trusts have taken their hold upon the amusement business. Barnum monopolizes the circus field and W. S. Cleveland, with his two large Haverly companies, comes so near occupying the entire country that nothing is left but cross-road towns for touring troubadours.

Nesby was kept busy in his new position in the Postoffice yesterday. It being the first of a new quarter he was kept busy making out box receipts besides attending to the regular routine of the money order window. Until the new mail handlers in the office get broke in the public should be a little lenient, but when they do get on to all the ropes Reno will have one of the best conducted offices in the State.

The Egyptian Phalanx.

The evolutions of the Egyptian Phalanx, included in the new features to be introduced by the Cleveland Minstrels at the Opera House next Thursday evening, is pronounced one of the finest spectacular scenes ever presented on the stage, except the Venetian Nights. Lose no time in securing reserved seats for the minstrel season, as the house is sure to be jammed during the engagement.

THE MOVEMENT IN CHOLLAR.

What Superintendent Lyman and Sharon Said of the Developments in That Mine and the Potosi.

The Virginia Chronicle, of last evening, has this:

The sharp upward movement in Chollar that began this week has temporarily diverted interest from Potosi, upon which the present advance in Comstock shares originated, and there is a general desire to ascertain the ground upon which the movement in Chollar is based. Through the courtesy of Superintendents D. B. Lyman and W. E. Sharon, who inspected the underground workings of the Chollar and Potosi this morning, the Chronicle is enabled to furnish the following information:

Mr. Lyman stated that in the face of the east crosscut on the Chollar 750 level a breast of fine ore is developed. The crosscut has just entered this ore, which is some distance from the footwall of the vein, and its width and importance can only be ascertained when the crosscut is further advanced, but he considers the prospect promising, that further explorations may result in developing a valuable body.

He says the high grade ore struck in Potosi, in the raise above the 330 level, is about two feet in width in the top of the raise, which is now up about 70 feet above the 330 level.

Mr. Sharon says the east crosscut on the Chollar 750 level is located about 90 feet south of the Hale & Norcross south line. This crosscut was run from the north lateral drift from the Chollar shaft. The crosscut is in about 100 feet, at a rough estimate, and out through the footwall several feet west of its present terminus.

A heavy clay was passed through lying on the footwall, after which a flow of water was encountered, and when the wet streak was passed the ore was entered that is now developed in the face, which shows an average value of $50 per ton. He says this is an entirely new development and is not a continuation of that in the Hale & Norcross.

In the Potosi, Mr. Sharon says, the ore streak in the top of the raise above the 930 level is about 18 inches in width, and estimates that it will average $150 per ton, but does not consider it as important a development as that in the Chollar. He says the east crosscut on the 850 level of Potosi has entered a formation indicating that it is nearing the footwall of the continuation of the ore developed in the raise above the 930 level. Five other east crosscuts have been advanced to the footwall, and will soon be extended to explore the vein.

Mr. Sharon says the contract for the construction of the pumps for draining the Gold Hill mines has been let, and that he expects to have them in position by June 1st, and that at the end of 60 days following that date he thinks the Crown Point and Belcher will be drained down to the 2,000 level, provided the incline is found in good condition, which it very probably will be as the water pressure usually keeps the timbers in place on the flooded levels.

Republicans State Convention.

The Republican State Central Committee, of Oregon, met at Portland, March 5th, and issued the following call:

A Republican convention for the State of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Or., on Wednesday, the 10th day of April, 1890, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices: to-wit: Representative to Congress, Governor, Supreme Judge, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, State Printer and District officers, and to contract such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 218 delegates apportioned among the several counties as follows: The same being one delegate at large from each county and one delegate for every 175 votes for Congressmen at the June election of 1888.

The Committee recommends that the primaries be held on Saturday, April 5, 1890, and the county conventions on April 9, 1890, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county Central Committees.

The representation of the coming Republican State Convention shall consist of one delegate at large from each county, and one for every 175 votes or fraction over one-half of 175 votes of the votes cast for the Republican candidate for the June election of 1888.

Race Track Leased.

The Directors of the Ormsby County Agricultural Association have leased the new Fair grounds to John P. Sweeney. Sweeney will remove all his stock to the new track and place it in first-class condition at once. With such a live man as John P. Sweeney in charge, says the Tribune, sport may be expected all through the year; in fact, he is already talking of getting up a Spring racing meeting and a baseball tournament.

Yesterday's Runaway.

The "blowing off" of an engine frightened the team of Alex Judica yesterday as he was driving up Commercial Row, causing them to become unmanageable. In crossing the track in their mad career one of the hind wheels of the wagon broke down, throwing the load and Alex out on to the track. Although Mr. Judica was badly bruised, he was not seriously hurt.

Preliminary Examination.

The preliminary examination of Charles J. Frisch, charged with the murder of Wm. Harold, was held Monday and resulted in holding the defendant for murder in the second degree and fixing the bond at $10,000. A bond was given executed by C. T. Bender, W. O. H. Martin, William Thompson and M. Nathan, and the defendant was released from jail.

Hopeful Views.

The Silver State cheerfully chirps: There are shrewd, sharp business men, who think the severe ordeal through which Nevada has passed will eventually benefit the State. They contend that last Winter was a great equalizer and prevented a few men from gobbling up all that is worth having, outside the mines, in Nevada.

Josh Law, who has been up in Alaska for a year or two superintending a canning factory, is back on a visit to old Reno friends. He will return to Alaska in a few days.

Dom Pedro declines Brazil's gift of $20,000 francs. The old man does not realize how poor he is, but his entertainers and dependents fully appreciate it.

The Treasures of Delphi.

Let us trust that the American school at Athens may speedily obtain funds enough to do some good digging at Delphi. It may be one's heart leap to think of the treasures they are sure to find there, notwithstanding the thefts of Nero, Constantine the Great and other scoundrels.

To get a picture of Delphi as it was in the best days of Greece, after the building of the great temple by the Alcmonides, read the tenth book of Pausanias. He tells us of four temples in a row at the entrance to Delphi. He then describes what was to be found within the sacred precincts of Apollo: A statue of Phylax of Croton, a bull in brass by Theopropus the Aeginetan, votive offerings and marble statues from Tegea and Laconia, a bronze wolf by Antiphon of Argos, the chariot of Amphiaras, the horses of the Tarentines in brass, the statues of the Epigoni, the treasury of the Sicyonians, statues of Leto, and Apollo, and Artemis shooting at Titus; treasures of Athenians, Thebans and Syracusans, hung with the spoils of war and adorned with statues; a portico built by the Athenians with money which they got in war from the Peloponnesians; a brazen head of the Paonian bison, a bronze dragon offered by the Greeks in common after the battle of Plataea, statues of foot soldiers and cavalry by Onatas, the votive axes of Pericles, a bronze wolf, a gilt statue of Phrynes by Praxiteles offered by herself, statues of cavalry leaders seated on horseback, a bronze ox from Kubos, a statue of Sardin, a horse offered by Callias the Athenian, a bronze statue of Homer on a pillar, the tomb of Achilles' son, the Lescho or public hall, with an enormous number of painted figures of Polygnotus and statues innumerable of Athena and Apollo. The great temple of Apollo was adorned, as to its eastern architrave, with gilded shields from the battle of Marathon. On the pediments were statues of the gods and of the setting sun, of Hercules slaying the Lernaean hydra, Bellerophon and the Chimera, Dionysus and a giant, etc. These are only a small fraction of the riches of Delphi as described by Pausanias. A single one of these works of art, if recovered, would be worth the price asked by the Greeks for the right to the whole site.—Boston Transcript.

Siam's Sacred Bird.

"Ha, ha, ha! Why don't you get a chair to sit down on?"

The voice was rather loud, but not disagreeable, and the tone somewhat muffled, says The San Diego. The salutation came to the investigator as he was on his daily perambulations about the city, and was traced to a handsome blue-black bird in a cage hanging under the shade of a fig tree at the residence of Dr. Gliden, on Sixteenth street, near H. As the reporter approached nearer he was received with more laughter and inquiries as to whether he came to see the "mino," if his health was good, etc. A few inquiries directed to a pleasant faced lady near by elicited the information that the bird was the sacred mino of Siam, which as a nestling had been smuggled from the temple where it was bred by a roving sea captain, and sold to Dr. Gliden, at Honolulu, some eight years ago.

Minio, as the bird is called, is about half the size of a crow and nearly as black. In the sunlight the feathers take a blue and green tinge, and there is a spot of white upon each wing and a necklace of bright yellow about the throat. The bill, which is large and strong, tapers to a point, and is orange hued near the head and lemon colored at the tip. The prominent eyes are dark and bright, the feet and legs lemon colored. The bird is valued at $250, but specimens have been known to bring $1,000 in the United States, where but few of them have ever been brought. The species is carefully guarded in Siam, and as none are over sold they can only be obtained surreptitiously.

Exorcising the Devil in India.

A strange case of superstition was recently investigated before the coroner of Bombay. A Hindoo mill hand, named Ramji Daji, had for some time been suffering from swollen knee joints and pains in various parts of the body. He went to the mill to get some wages due to him, and on his return was taken ill on the road. He was brought home on the back of a friend in an almost unconscious state, and was placed in a sitting posture, being held up by his father. A man named Deo, who was present, suggested that he was possessed of a devil, in order to expel which Deo swayed himself about in front of the sick man, seized hold of his hair, and demanded of the devil who he was. Not receiving a reply he struck the deceased violently with a rattan, when the latter fell back in a dying condition; but before his death another friend took the rattan and beat the deceased, both men swaying their bodies to and fro and professing to be possessed with the spirit of a god. The flogging was intended to drive out the devil. Daji died almost immediately without a complaint. The widow narrated all these facts to the coroner, and described both floggings as being very violent. The medical evidence showed that there were several bruises on the back and an abrasion on the right hip, but that the cause of death was hemorrhage from rupture of the spleen, which was probably not due to the flogging. The jury found a verdict accordingly, adding that there was no evidence to show how the spleen became ruptured.—London Times.

The Forests of California.

The evergreen redwood rises straight as an arrow to a height of from 200 to 300 feet. There are whole tribes of the conifers, dozens of specimens of cypress and cedar, a variety and relationship of the oaks that drives the botanist wild, ravines filled with the flowering dogwood, sweeps of glistening manzanita, scattered patches of the red-berried buckthorn, rifts of the pink petaled rhododendron, sanguinary patches where stand the Judas tree. In this favored country also bloom and bear the pomegranate, fig, olive, almond, apricot, lemon, orange and the nectarine. The camellia is a tree, the halimoloea a stout shrub; geraniums are used for scarlet hedges; the calla lily is a weed. And to round out this riot of luxuriance—this saturnalia of foliage, fruit and flower—nature sows every spring, in and through it all, a crop of wild cats such as was never dreamed of by the original prodigal son.—Harper's Magazine.

Gulls and Their Young.

Every bird watches over and cares for her own nest, though the numbers are so great and the tumult so excessive that it is difficult to conceive how each gull can distinguish her own spotted eggs, placed in the midst of so many others, exactly similar in size, shape and color; and when at length the young are hatched and are swimming about on the loch or crowded together on some grassy point, the old birds, as they come home from a distance with food, fly rapidly amid thousands of young ones exactly similar to their own, without even looking at them, until they find their own offspring, which recognizing their parents among all the other birds, receive the morsel without any dispute as to the price, each waiting patiently for its own parent, in perfect confidence that its turn will come in due season.—New Orleans Picayune.

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter; and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
